High Chaparral* Television Series Reunion at Old Tucson Studios
October, 17, 2009

(TUCSON, AZ) Members of the cast and crew of the long-running television series, High Chaparral which was shot at Old Tucson Studios and aired on NBC from 1967 to 1971 will hold Reunion activities at Old Tucson Studios. Guests to Old Tucson Studios who pay the regular Admission price will have access to some of the Reunion events. The visit to the set where the show was filmed is the highlight of the 3-day reunion of High Chaparral fans.

In honor of the show's unique contribution to Tucson, Mayor Bob Walkup has declared October 17, the day of the Reunion, as High Chaparral Day. The mayor who is scheduled to attend the gathering will present the proclamation to cast and crew.

Local actor Don Collier who played Sam Butler in the series will also be honored as the day marks his 81st birthday.

Attendees will gather at the High Chaparral set at Old Tucson Studios from 10am until High Noon. Guests will be treated to a Question and Answer session with cast and crew in the Grand Palace Saloon from 2p-4p.
