OLD TUCSON STUDIOS ANNOUNCES SUNDAY AFTERNOON WESTERN COWBOY MUSIC 'SAMPLER' SERIES BEGINNING MARCH 15-APRIL 26, 2009

(Old Tucson Studios)---Each Sunday, beginning March 8 and lasting through April 26, 2009, load up the wagon train and head out to Old Tucson Studios for a series of intimate performances by some of Western folk music's most cherished and original acts. Artist Joe Green kicks off the series March 8 with his cowboy poetry, stories and songs of the West. The performances, staged in the Grand Palace Saloon beginning at 1 pm, will have you toe tappin' and smiling ear to ear.

Each artist in the line-up features his or her own special blend of Cowboy that embodies the true spirit of the American West. The Duet "Call of the West" combines unique harmonizing and top-notch musicianship with some good old-fashioned fun and showmanship!

The series winds up Sunday, April 26 with Arizona singer/songwriter Jon Messenger whose original Folk and Western tunes have entertained audiences throughout the West.
